Agriculture Commodities

Exporter guidance: OFAC does not require a CCAT for any agricultural items except for fertilizer, western red cedar, and live horses. (See 66 FR 36683). Agricultural commodities are defined in Section 772 of the EAR and reference is made to Section 102 of the Agricultural Trade Act of 1978 and listed at www.csrees.usda.gov.

FOOD: General licenses that authorize the exportation or reexportation of most food items to individuals and entities in an area of Sudan other than the Specified Areas of Sudan and in Iran. No other agricultural commodities are covered by these general licenses. The term "food" is broadly defined in OFAC's regulations as "items that are intended to be consumed by and provide nutrition to humans or animals, including vitamins and minerals, food additives and supplements, and bottled drinking water, and seeds that germinate into items that are intended to be consumed by and provide nutrition to humans or animals." The term "food" does not include alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, gum, or fertilizer.
